

4PSA VoipNow Roadmap

The document describes the development of 4PSA VoipNow.
This roadmap contains only information about the next iteration.

1.4 release March 2007

- Phone provisioning system, most popular phone brands supported
- Zaptel channels support. Support for hardware interfaces in order to connect directly to PSTN network
- External incoming call charging support (ability to offer paid incoming)
- Improvements in billing exceptions
- Multiple improvements in routing rules
- New IVR applications
- Ability to override the global SIP settings and define SIP preferences per extension
- Multiple interface improvements
- Call parking, per client parking lot
- Direct call pickup, ability to pickup another ringing extension
- Multiple queue extension improvements
- Proprietary client behavior learning
- Multiple performance improvements and optimizations
- Ability to backup and restore routing rules
- More detailed call history reports
- Ability to process incomplete fax messages
- Multiple SOAP improvements